

GALLO-ROMAN CRYPTOPORTICUS

Built between the 1st and 2nd centuries A.D., these three partially buried galleries located beneath the Gallo-Roman forum of Durocortorum may have once been a covered narket. Only the eastern gallery is visible, and it is among the few cryptoporticus of the Roman world to have been excavated. Temporary exhibitions.

... and City of Champagne!

Reims is also known the world over because its name is written on the labels of the famous names in champagne who, through their talent for producing great wine and their passion for quality, founded the reputation and prestige of the Champagne wines. The Champagne hillsides, houses and cellars were included in the UNESCO world heritage list in 2015.

These houses invite you to visit their cellars where their magnificent vintages lie in the dark for many long years, before being part of celebrations all over the world, from the most outstanding to the least pretentious.

Visits made on foot, warm clothing recommended. Pets are not allowed. Champagne tasting is not allowed for guests aged under 18 years or for pregnant women.
